Andhra University
Centre for Distance and Online Education

Q1. When will be the admissions given for ODL or OL programs?

Ans: As per UGC guidelines, admissions will be done twice in a year. Academic Year batch (July – June of Next year) and Calendar Year batch (January – December). Notification for respective batches will be given in June/July and December/January.

Q2. Is it possible to Join UG and PG programs without any basic Qualifications?

Ans: No. For UG admission 10+2 course of study and for PG 10+2+3 is a must

Q3. Is it required to visit University personally for admission?

Ans: No. As Andhra University adapted completed automation from entry to exit, learners can join from anywhere in India or Abroad through online. The learner enrollment form can be accessed using www.andhrauniversity-sde.com . Fill in your details, attach all required scanned copies of original documents/certificates, and make a fee payment online. Just submit your application.

Q4. How do I know that my admission got confirmed?

Ans: Once the Learner enrollment form is submitted, you will receive a message about the confirmation of submission of the form. After thorough scrutinization by the University team, admission will be confirmed and a Registered Number (ID No.) message will be sent to the registered mobile number along with the Login and password details to Learner Portal.

Q5. What are the eligibility criteria to study in Open and Distance Learning (ODL) or On-Line (OL)?

Ans: Yes. For admission into ODL or OL program, one must satisfy the eligibility criteria specified in the UGC Notification on the specification of Degrees - 2014 for all programs. Eligibility for different programs is also placed on the website www.andhrauniversity-sde.com

Q6. What programs are on offer?

Ans: The school of Distance Education is offering a wide range of programs at UG and PG levels along with Certificate, Diploma, and PG Diplomas programs. For details please visit the website.

Q7. Can I design a special program of study to suit my particular needs?

Ans: No. As Andhra University is offering a wide range of programs, you can choose a suitable program from among the available list.

Q8. Can I change my intended program of study in the middle of the total program duration? For example, from a science degree to a Social degree during my study through distance mode.

Ans: No

Q9. How long does a course last?

Ans: As per the UGC Guidelines, the maximum period of study is double the minimum duration for the particular program. For Ex. UG, the minimum duration is 3 years so the maximum will be 6 years. PG minimum 2 years so the maximum will be 4 years

Q10. How do I know if I am eligible of studying ODL or OL programs?

Ans: Eligibility criteria for all programs as per UGC guidelines are placed on the CDOE website.

Q11.   When will I attend the end examinations?

Ans.   All the details are given in the Academic Calendar and continuous updates will come through the Learner login Portal for all Learners.

Q12. Does whether University provides the Study materials?

Ans: Distance learning students receive Self Learning Material (SLM) both in print and soft copies form. Soft copies are provided through the Learner Portal dedicated to the service of all learners. If any student wants to have physical books, they have to submit a special request by making a prescribed fee through their Login portal.

Q13. Will I meet other learners when I study through Distance mode?

Ans: Yes. Learners can meet and interact with co-learners during face-to-face contact programs organized by the University.

Q14. Will my distance degree be recognized?

Ans: Programs offered by the Centre for Distance and OnlineEducation, Andhra University are entitled by the Distance Education Bureau (DEB), University Grants Commission (UGC), and Programs entitled by UGC DEB are automatically on par with the regular degrees and eligible for higher studies as well as State and Central Govt. Employment.

Q15. In case of any clarification whom to contact in the CDOE?

Ans: Contact details are given on the website. Also, learners can send mail requests to sdeauvsp@andhrauniversity.edu.in by mentioning their ID Number, Mobile Number and other relevant proofs related to the request.

Q16. How to know information about academic details like fees, materials, results, etc.?

Ans: A dedicated Learner Portal is made available to Distance mode learners through which they can access all information related to Academic schedules, Internal Assignments, Examinations, Results, etc.

Q17. Does whether University has dedicated staff for programs?

Ans: A team of dedicated faculty and Academic Coordinators always guide the students to complete their course of study without any difficulty.

Q18. What are the technical courses are offered through Distance mode?

Ans : As per UGC guidelines, no technical programs are offered through distance mode

Q19. Is it possible to pursue M. Phil. and Ph.D. programs through distance mode?

Ans : No.

Q20. What is the policy on refund in case of cancellation of admission?

Ans : Refund policy and procedure is available in the website and processing will be done as per the UGC guidelines.

Q21. In how many days end examination results will be published?

Ans : Normally in 30 days after the last examination, results will be published.

Q22. What is the mode of assessment?

Ans : Continuous or formative Assessment – 30%

Summative Assessment – 70%